

Disaster Recovery Center Open in Muskogee County

Release Date: July 19, 2022

OKLAHOMA CITY – A joint federal/state Disaster Recovery Center (DRC) is now open in Muskogee County to help survivors affected by the severe storms, tornadoes and flooding that occurred May 2-8.

Survivors from any of the seven designated counties can meet face to face with FEMA and the U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA) specialists to get help with their disaster assistance applications, upload documents and have their questions about federal disaster assistance answered at the center.

The seven designated counties are Adair, Cherokee, Muskogee, Okmulgee, Pottawatomie, Seminole and Tulsa.

The Disaster Recovery Center is open at the following location:

Muskogee County

Harris-Jobe School

2809 N. Country Club Road

Muskogee, OK 74403

The hours of operation are 9 a.m. to 8 p.m., Monday through Friday and 10 a.m. to 6 p.m., Saturday. The DRC is closed on Sundays.

The recovery center will follow COVID-19 precautions. Masks are required for employees, volunteers and survivors.

Download the FEMA mobile app at fema.gov/about/news-multimedia/mobile-products for more information about DRCs (under Disaster Resources, select Talk to FEMA in Person). Active Disaster Recovery Center locations and hours are available FEMA.gov/DRC.
