5. Selection notification will be delivered no later than December 20, 2025.

6. The school will cover the cost of this program for the student.

Attendance Policy

Full attendance by each participant is essential in the Youth Leadership program to meet its objectives. Youth Leadership will work with schools to encourage school attendance credit. Please check the program calendar on the enclosed information sheet. If selected, you must be able to attend all program sessions. If absence is necessary because of a school related function, illness, etc. then the absence must be made up by volunteering at the Chamber of Commerce office, or another local organization, or by writing a 5 paragraph essay about the importance of leadership. A make-up sheet is provided in the information packet.

I understand and accept the attendance requirements for Youth Leadership.
